3		2	CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Back on the
4		3	record. All right. This afternoon
5		4	everybody is going to want to hear this.
6		5	We're going to finish off with this 1.3(b).
7	* * * * * * * * * * * * * * *	6	And it's been brought to my attention
8		7	that we have not quite covered two pages out
9	MEETING OF THE SUPREME COURT ADVISORY COMMITTEE	8	of 19, and that the subcommittee has got some
10	OCTOBER 22, 1999	9	specific areas that they need help and
11	(AFTERNOON SESSION)	10	direction on and they want discussion and
12		11	think that the Supreme Court would benefit
13	* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *	12	from discussion.
14		13	So after we finish 1.3(b), we're going to
15		14	go into specific areas that Justice McClure
16		15	wants to discuss which are outlined in the
17		16	Report of the Special Subcommittee on
18	Taken before William F. Wolfe,	17	Implementation of Family Code Chapter 33. And
19	Certified Court Reporter and Notary Public in	18	Ann and I have divided them up into areas of
20	Travis County for the State of Texas, on the	19	importance.

24	East 11th Street, Suite 200, Austin, Texas	23	remove the word "opinion" from (b)(3) so that
25	78701.	24	the appellate courts are free to issue

6	283 307	5	common law concept of stare decisis in
7	325 402	6	developing case law.
8	432 441	7	CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, is that
9	444 448	8	opinion a court document pertaining to the 10	463 464	9	proceedings?
11		10	MR. ORSINGER: Definitely.
12		11	CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, then if
13		12	that's true, doesn't that run afoul of
14		13	subparagraph (k) of Section 1?
15		14	MR. ORSINGER: I hate to say yes
16		15	because that concedes my point, but it does
17		16	appear to conflict.
18		17	MR. PEMBERTON: Richard, in
19		18	fairness, the appellate provisions refer only
20		19	to rulings. They don't have there's not
21		20	the counterpart to what you see in 1.3(b).
22		21	MR. ORSINGER: Good point. Thank
23		22	you. Bob has kept me from hitting the ground
24		23	hard.
25		24	MR. PEMBERTON: I'm not taking a

And rulings arguably include just 5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: Well, 6 judgments, and judgments at the appellate 6 part of this discussion involves the appellate 7 level are separate from opinions. And 7 procedure, which, as I mentioned before, there 8 opinions are the guidance we all look to 8 is little or no guidance in the statute itself 9 anyway. as to how these are to be conducted. We know 9 10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So do you think 10 that the notice of appeal will be filed in 11 subparagraph (k) is only applicable to the 11 fact to the appellate clerk. We know that the 12 trial court notwithstanding that they refer to 12 appellate court is expected to rule within 13 court proceedings? 13 approximately 48 hours. 14 MR. ORSINGER: Well, they separately 14 The decisions on confidentiality, though, 15 refer to appeals, so I think an argument can 15 also apply in the appellate court. For 16 be made that Section 33.003 does not relate to example, if we're not going to distinguish 16 17 what's in Section 33,004. 17 between rulings and opinions, and the court 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Brister. 1.8 decides they want to issue a written opinion. 19 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: My proposal 19 number one, it's going to reflect the county, 20 would be, if you look at both the statute, 20 in all likelihood, that the lawsuit came from 21 33.003(k), and this one side by side, as I 21 or the application came from. It's going to 22 understand it, nobody has a problem with 22 identify the trial judge. It's going to 23 (b)(1). Then I would just pick up from (k), 23 identify the panel of the court of appeals 24 and (b)(2) would be the second sentence of 24 that is rendering the order. 25 (k), "The court proceedings shall be conducted 25 We're also being unrealistic to expect Page 239 Page 241 in a manner that protects the anonymity of the 1 the appellate courts to issue written opinions 1 2 minor." Part (3) is the next sentence, "The 2 within 48 hours. Most of the courts have --3 application and all other court documents," in both the Judicial Conference and in calls 3 4 dropping out the stuff about the reporter to my office -- have been worried about how 4 5 notes. You issue the order saying the 2 says, is break it down into sections and have 3 Log Cabin Republicans have no right to be 3 a separate paragraph relating to the appellate there at the convention, opinion to follow. 4 procedure where we use the language in the 4 5 HON, ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: Well, 5 statute, subsection (c), that the ruling of a 6 that's what these rules implicate. What we've 6 court of the appeals is confidential and 7 suggested was this: You rule by your order 7 privileged, and we go ahead and later on 8 within the time frame in the statute. If you 8 permit a delayed publication of the opinion. 9 are reversing the trial court's denial so that HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: But that 9 10 there is a grant of her right, there will be 10 is contained within the rules relating to the 11 no appeal to the Supreme Court. So the time 11 appellate process. 12 frame is not so critical. 12 MR. That was after a rather lengthy 17 way. 18 discussion with Judge Baker, who had been on 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's the way the Dallas court; on my court; we had input 19 19 it's set up. 20 from Judge Schneider; we had input from the 20 MR. A lot of 23 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well, 24 courts have a full circulation policy, which 24 Version A contemplates that the opinion will 25 means the opinion circulates to every member 25 not be published. That 3 problem. way we're free to do something sensible to 3 4 So the overwhelming consideration you 4 have appellate review of trial courts that 5 have to make first is, do we want to create 5 develop some kind of law about how the trial 6 unique appellate rules that are going to apply 6 courts ought to discharge their 7 to these proceedings to give guidance to the 7 responsibility. 8 intermediate courts? Or do you want to be 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Alex Albright. 9 silent, and then figure out what we're going 9 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: How do you 10 to do with the time frame? You have to decide publish an opinion and make the ruling 10 what your purpose is, or what you expect the 11 confidential? 11 12 purpose to be. 12 MR. PEMBERTON: That's what bothered 13 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: But not 13 the subcommittee. 14 necessarily in this provision. I'm not saying 14 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: I think to 15 there shouldn't be some appellate timetable, 15 follow the statute, you can't do that. And I 16 I'm just saying this section on think we've got to follow the statute. 16 confidentiality, in my view, just ought to 17 17 HON. SCOTT A BRISTER: On a lot of 18 quote from the statute. 18 issues they could. 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: But what 19 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: And then Paul 20 I understood Richard's comment to be was to 20 Wattler and his client can sue whoever to get 21 leave opinions in there. Richard, isn't that 21 a copy of the opinion, and then the Supreme 22 what you said? 22 Court has to deal with it. 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: No, he wanted to 23 HON. SCOTT A. You could write about the procedure and 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, Justice 3 say that this is what the procedure is going 3 McClure, do you accept Richard's request to 4 to be and this part of the procedure is 4 strike the word "opinion"? 5 unconstitutional without saying how this case 5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: No. 6 came out. 6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Let's have 7 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: Well, then it's 7 a quick vote on that. How many people are in 8 not an opinion. Then you're really doing what 8 favor of Richard's proposal to strike the word 9 Scott McCown has been saying, which is true, "opinion" from subsection (b)(3)? 9 10 that this is not a case and opinion deal, this 10 How many against? 11 is an agency administrative proceeding. And 11 24 to six against, it fails. you have the second level of administrative 12 12 Okay. Now, what about Judge Brister's 13 people then issuing guidelines. 13 idea of tracking the language of the statute 14 Mr. Edwards points out in Rule 47, it 14 in subparagraphs (k) and (c), rather than the 15 says if you're going to write an opinion, it somewhat different language that is found in 15 16 has to address every issue. our draft, subparagraph (b) on 16 17 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: That doesn't 17 confidentiality? Justice McClure, do you 18 mean you can't - I've had opinions where the accept or reject that idea? 18 19 part where I was reversed was published and 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: 1 reject 20 the part where I was affirmed was not 20 it. 21 published, which I think ought to be 21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. How many 22 unconstitutional. But you could write about 22 people are in favor of -all the opinions and publish the part that has 23 HON. TOM LAWRENCE: Could you 23 24 to do with how these rules apply without 24 restate how it's going to be phrased? 25 showing how anything came out. I'm convinced 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Brister, Page 247 Page 249 1 the appellate judges in this room could do 1 let me try, or you can try yourself. Go 2 it. Don't shake your head, Sarah. 2 ahead. 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, it seems to 3 HON, SCOTT A. BRISTER: Well (b)(1) 4 me that the question is whether or not 4 would be as is. (b)(2) would be the second 5 striking the word "opinion" runs afoul of the 5 sentence of 33.004, subparagraph (k), "Court 6 Legislature, either its precise language or 6 proceedings shall be conducted in a manner 7 the intent of the legislation. 7 that protects the anonymity of the minor." 8 MR. ORSINGER: I think that the 8 Then part (b)(3) would be the application 9 statutory provision that a ruling is 9 language continuing in that subparagraph (k), 10 confidential and privileged means you can't 10 "The application and all other court 11 get a copy of the judgment. I don't think 11 documents pertaining to the proceedings are 12 that that means that the reasoning that goes 12 confidential and privileged and not subject to 13 into their arriving at the decision can't ever disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code, 13 14 be revealed. I think that's a defensible 14 or to discovery, subpoena, or other legal 15 interpretation of this. process." 15 16 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: Yeah, But you 16 And then (4) would be from subparagraph 17 can't write an opinion that we always know of 17 (1), "An order of the court issued under this 18 and publish the opinion without disclosing the section is confidential and privileged and is 18 ruling. You have to do it in some very 19 19 not subject to disclosure under 552, 20 different fashion. And it seems to me that we Government Code, or discovery, subpoena, or 20 21 need to make it -- we have to say in here the 21 other legal process. The order may not be ruling is confidential. And then if the 22 22 released" -- or "the order may be released 23 San Antonio Court of Appeals wants to have 23 only to" -- and then leaving the (A), (B), 24 some rules where they issue guidelines based 24 (C), (D) and (E) as they are in the upon cases that have come before them, they subcommittee draft. 25

Page 250 Page 252 1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: And are you going 1 ruling is confidential and privileged? 2 to also have the ruling of the court of 2 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It 3 appeals issued under this section? You 3 doesn't even refer to the Supreme Court, but 4 wouldn't do that? 4 that is obviously the implication. It is 5 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: I would 5 33.004(f). 6 track the statute. Because again, the idea is 6 MR. ORSINGER: I think it's a 7 not to - I don't think we should be giving 7 stretch to say that (f) means that (c) applies 8 our interpretation of whether "ruling" means 8 to the Supreme Court. And your rule 9 "opinion" or not. I think that ought to be definitely treats the Supreme Court the same 9 10 decided after somebody has more time to brief 10 as the court of appeals. 11 and think about it. We ought to just quote a 11 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: My point is 12 new paragraph from (c), "A ruling of the court just that either one of you may be right, but 12 13 of appeals is confidential and privileged." 13 we shouldn't try to vote on that today. The 14 Just quote from the statute. And then when 14 statute is ambiguous. We ought to leave it 15 people have time - I assume what will happen 15 ambiguous, and let the process work it out. 16 is then, in that instance, the court of 16 MR. TIPPS: But the mandate of the 17 appeals, some might give notice that they were 17 Legislature was that the Supreme Court come up 18 going to publish it; some might not. 18 with rules that will ensure confidentiality. 19 Obviously, nobody would publish it in any way 19 And my response to Judge Brister would be that that would disclose who the minor was, because 20 we have had a committee that has sat down and 20 21 the rules and the statute will be clear about 21 thought about it, and that's Judge McClure's 22 that, but as to whether people could fight out 22 committee. 23 on mandamuses, or whatever they wanted to, 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes. And that's 24 about whether that means the opinion is 24 why we're giving substantial deference to her 25 published or not. accepting or rejecting. So this is really 25 Page 251 Page 253 1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: All right, Is only a vote on what we put into our report to 1 2 everybody clear on what Judge Brister is 2 the Court. We're not going to physically proposing? Justice McClure does not accept 3 3 change the language of the rule, even if Judge 4 it, so what we're doing is voting on whether 4 Brister's proposal is accepted. Yes, sir. 5 or not we like Judge Brister's proposal and 5 MR. HAMILTON: Section 2 also says 6 will so advise the Supreme Court. 6 "such rules as may be necessary," and if 7 MR. ORSINGER: Chip, can I ask one 7 they're not necessary, we ought not do them. thing? It appears that the statute does not 8 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, Bonnie. 9 require that the Supreme Court not issue an 9 MS. WOLBRUECK: I just noted on 10 opinion or even keep its judgment 10 number (1) where it says, "Court personnel confidential, unless I'm misreading this. And 11 11 must ensure that the minor's contact with the 12 if that's correct, that the statute doesn't clerk and court remains confidential." Could 12 13 require this kind of confidentiality at the 13 that be interpreted as placing additional 14 Supreme Court level, then we shouldn't have a 14 duties on other court personnel like bailiffs rule that imposes that requirement on the 15 15 or court reporters to ensure that the clerk or 16 Supreme Court. 16 the court are handling things confidentially? 17 HON. Page 254 in the clerk's office, ensuring that the clerk takes steps to ensure the deputy clerks also understand the nature of the proceeding. That was the intent.

MS. WOLBRUECK: Yeah. And I was wondering if court personnel must ensure, wondering if that's placing additional duties maybe on other court personnel besides the clerk's office.

HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: There was also some concern, based on the incidents in Tarrant County, that if we allowed these to be filed with the local court coordinator, that we wanted the language to be broad enough so that the court coordinator, who may not be a deputy clerk, would also be responsible to ensure the confidentiality, if it is filed with her.

MR. ORSINGER: Chip, over on Page 8, Paragraph 2.2(a), Bonnie, on where you file, they list under "Clerk's Duties," they say "The clerk or other court personnel with whom the application is to be filed," so you could literally hand one of these to a bailiff and probably be filing it.

MS. WOLBRUECK: Yeah. And we have questioned that also, and I know that Justice McClure has a concern also.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Let's vote on Judge Brister's proposal. Everybody in favor of it raise their hand, please. All against, please.

Judge Brister's proposal passes 18 to 12.

So Bob, we'll have to note that it's the recommendation of this committee that Paragraph 1.3(b) be revised in accordance with what Judge Brister articulated, which was to leave (b)(1) the same, and to replace the language in (b)(2), (3) and (4) with the language that tracks from the statute.

All right. Richard.

MR. ORSINGER: I'd like to draw attention to (b)(4), if in fact it stays in there. In the first line, where we talk about guardian, throughout these rules they use the word "guardian," but in the form they use the word "legal guardian" when they say "without requiring the consent of the parents or legal guardian or managing conservator."

I think it clarifies to call it a legal

Page 256 guardian to differentiate from guardian ad litem. And I would move that we substitute "legal" everywhere that we're talking about the probate court appointed guardian.

HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That's fine.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure accepts that. Is anybody opposed to that? So we'll insert the word "legal" in subparagraph 1.3(b)(4) and anywhere else in the rule that similar language appears. Okay, Bob? Good. Richard.

MR. ORSINGER: Since you're going to submit the minority report to the Supreme Court, can we comment on drafting issues in Alternative B, the minority report?

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Briefly.

MR. ORSINGER: Okay. On Paragraph (5), you talk about the public is entitled to secure records. And since there is no such thing as "the public," I think you ought to you say something like a person, any person.

And throughout this provision they talk about the judgment entry, like in (5)(C), "The judgment entry." I think it's used on four different pages in here. But in other parts we use "judgment," and in other parts we use 2 "order." I think we need to be consistent throughout. It's either a judgment, which is what the form says it is, or it's an order.

And I've never heard of a "judgment entry," and this must be Ohio law or something, but I would suggest that we be consistent and use the Texas phrase.

And then over on Page 5, paragraph (iii), "If disclosure is unavoidable." It says, "If, in the judgment of the court," and that gets very confusing to me, because the judgment of the court in this context is usually the written decision. And I would just suggest that we say, "If the court determines that it's impossible to release an opinion." And then furthermore on paragraph (iii), where, if the court decides you can't preserve anonymity, you never tell the court then to deny the request to publish. And it seems to me the first thing you ought to do is tell the court, then, deny publication, and at the same time put in there the grounds for why you denied it.

MR. JACKSON: Sure. Well, it gets you what you want.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Does anybody have any problem with that? Okay. Anything else about that rule that anybody wants to talk about?

MR. PEMBERTON: So we're tracking the statute --

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: No. No. we're not.

MR. PEMBERTON: -- but adding the court reporter notes by using this language.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: What we're doing is we're telling the Supreme Court that a majority of this committee disagrees with the subcommittee with respect to 1.3(b), subparagraph (b), in that this committee, by an 18 to 12 vote, believes that, rather than the language that's here, the language ought to track the statute in the way that Judge

MR. JACKSON: Well, we got into this debate on the discovery process, appellate process, the TRAP process, about the court reporter's record. And you know, "the record" conflicts with what Bonnie is putting together as the the record. But "the record" in our sense means whatever we're preparing for that statement of facts, whether it be the disk or the paper. However the court reporter puts it together, it's his record. His record is in his box on that disk. His record is not in that tray.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: What if we said, "To assure confidentiality, court reporter notes, in whatever form," how does that sound?

HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: That's fine. The court reporter that visited with our subcommittee wanted to be sure that, if the diskette happened to be put with the court files, that there was still some precaution for the other notes to ensure confidentiality. MR. BABCOCK: Is anybody

All right. If you all will take out the eight-page report on the Special Subcommittee, there are topics that the subcommittee needs input from us on, and accordingly, the Supreme Court would as well. And to ensure that we deal with all these topics and don't get bogged down in other issues of lesser importance, given our time constraints, let's go to Page 5, which has Paragraph D, "Where an Application May Be Filed." And while you're looking over those couple or three paragraphs, Ann will tell us what the issue is here. HON, ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Under the statute, the application can be filed in the district court, county court at law, a court having probate jurisdiction. A number of the probate judges have expressed their personal opinion that, unless the minor is involved in a guardianship proceeding or some other proceeding in their probate court, that they are not to be involved in these decisions. As you might expect, the general jurisdiction judges don't think that is an appropriate reading of the statute.

So why wouldn't a reading of 13 14 regardless of the random assignment process 14 this be consistent with "any district court" 15 that's been set up. 15 in this case if that was their intent? 16 And I'll also point out that the Rules of HON. And when the disagree that you could say only district 7 courts can accept them in this county and not 8 matters got argued in the Supreme Court at 8 9 some point later, when the Court's personnel 9 county courts and not probate courts, but the 10 was different, many of us were surprised that language in this rule really doesn't say 10 11 the statutory language seemed to be the most 11 that. It doesn't say you can do that, nor 12 important language to the Court, even though 12 does it say that you can't do that. 13 the Court's rules said otherwise. And I just CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Right, 13 14 think it's a silly idea to try to be changing 14 MR. ORSINGER: And either we ought 15 this from what it says and probably what it to just stick with vague language like this or 15 16 means. 16 we ought to use the statutory language. But 17 are we really debating something of substance HON. BILL RHEA: Well, I have to say 17 18 amen to Scott's interpretation. I think it's 18 HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: Well, 19 plain on its face that it means any of these 19 20 different types of courts. I think you're 20 apparently. 21 going to have a problem in El Paso if you 21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Apparently we 22 relegate it to only family courts. CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. So it will 13 to assignments, you don't want to limit it to 14 be inserted. 15 Now, Judge Brown, do you want to raise an 16 issue of adding some language about local 17 autonomy? 18 HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: Yes. I 19 don't have it in front of me, but something 20 along the lines of "Subject to the local rules 21 determining the particular court that shall 22 hear the matter" — in other words, if we're 23 going to treat filing as just the act of 24 filing, I want to make that separate from 15 on assignments, you don't want to limit it to 16 local rules. 17 Government Code, which is the provision for 18 assignment of — one distinction that the 19 subcommittee focused on that really hasn't 20 been brought up here and I just want to focus 21 on now, there's a distinction between a court 22 and a judge. Well, if we think that, maybe we should say that to tell we should say that to tell we should say that because otherwise, I think it it any hear it may be filed in this court but another court can hear it. Maybe we should say that to tell public in raise and hear it. Maybe we should say that to tell their own rules under this statute. CHAIRMAN BAGCOCK: Ckay. How we vote on "any" any impact whether we do that, so let's vote on that. Everybody who is in favor of inserting the word "any" after "An application may be filed in this court but another court and hear of "any" after "An application may be filed in "in Rule 2.1(a) raise their hand. All right. Everybody opposed. The insertion of "any" after "An application may be filed in" in Rule 2.1(a) raise their hand. All right. Everybody opposed. The insertion of "any" arries 19 to 12. Did you accept that or not? HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: I did. CILAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. So it will be inserted. Now, Judge Brown, Go you want to raise an issue of adding some language about local autonomy? HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, IR.: Yes. I don't have it in front of me, but something along the lines of "Subject to the local rules about the matter" — in other words, if we're going to treat filing as just the act of filing, I	1	where it's heard.	1	CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So you would
MR. LOW- And the Legislature may say it's got to be filed there, but it doesn't say that that court has to hear it. considered by the courts in other jurisdictions or courts in general, just so that I will have, for my own use, a checklist to go through. There may be things on here that I really hadn't thought about before. So I would propose saying, rather than the second sentence of Paragraph 4, "Factors that have been considered in other jurisdictions include:" And then, if this is an accurate list, it's an accurate list, which I assume it is. "In this or other jurisdictions," something like that. HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: Where would 12 to be inquired to, but not a checklist. CHARMAN BABCOCK: Hold that thought. Justice Duncan. HON, SARAI B. DUNCAN: The reason I min favor to include this type of comment is that, if I were appointed a guardian ad litem in this situation, I would like some advice that these are factors that have been considered by the courts in other jurisdictions or courts in other jurisdictions or courts in general, just so that I will have, for my own use, a checklist to go through. There may be things on here that I really hadn't thought about before. So I would propose saying there that the exame the second sentence of Paragraph 4, "Factors that have been considered in other jurisdictions or courts in other jurisdictions or courts in general, just so that I will have, for my own use, a checklist to go through. There may be things on here that I really hadn't thought about before. And we know that when 10 Judge Patterson's more generalized statement. 11 that seminar comes, we cancel everything else but I think we ought to be on record about 11 12 because that's the only training we get for 12 it. We're going to vote on whether or not to 13 this type of work. We get certified. We get 13 keep Comment 4, with this list of factors, 14 a book that we use for the next three years 14 with some softening language as Justice Duncan 15 until the next seminar comes out. And that is 15 proposed, or whether or not we're going to go 16 the only thing that we get. 16 to more generalized, specific categories as 17 And every court is different. No standard. So 22 global, you're looking at what's in the best then we're going to have one rule that does 22 23 interest of the child, these kinds of things. 23 and one that doesn't. And I know we voted. 24 They're already spelled out in the Family 24 but I just wanted to go on the record with 25 Code. 25 that. Page 319 Page 321 1 HON. It seems to me that it's clear 6 guidelines. 6 that this -- it probably has been from the 7 MS. There are suggestions that, 14 form, and I do recall some reference to during the course of the conversation today, 14 hopefully bar associations will step in, 15 15 that make it pretty clear where people stand 16 somebody will come in and develop guidelines, on this issue. And I'm concerned that we're 16 17 as they have done in the family law area. And 17 kind of losing the focus of, you know, a I remember that discussion, and that's why I 18 18 proper judicious approach to this issue. 19 was a little bit surprised to see us 19 We've got a recommendation from the 20 incorporate it in the comments so subcommittee that deals with specific issues. 20 specifically. And I don't want to wait for CPS or Planned Parenthood to come in and tell the guardian ad litem what those proper guidelines are. We've got some good suggestions here. Maybe some of them don't need to be in there at all. I would suggest that we go through those, and if we can eliminate some that aren't helpful or offensive or irrelevant or something, let's do that and see what we wind

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I think that's where I'm headed, Bill, because I think Justice McClure is unwilling to accept a change to Comment 4 that would go to Judge Patterson's more general category. So all we're doing now by this vote is to advise the Court how the committee feels about the issue of Comment 4 with a list of factors, and we'll work on the list in a minute, versus a comment with very generalized issues, as Judge

Justice McClure says, "Yeah, I accept deletion of Nos. 4, 6 and 7," we may be where you want to go and where everybody wants to go. But for right now, we're just talking about the two things. So everybody who is in favor --

HON. PHIL HARDBERGER: Chip.
CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, Justice
Hardberger.

HON. PHIL HARDBERGER: You know, it really wouldn't be difficult to have both in this. You could have a general statement on what you're looking for, the global thing of Justice Patterson. And then you could incorporate the language Justice Duncan said, some of the other factors that have been taken into account in other jurisdictions are, and all these won't be appropriate in every case. And then you've got them all. You really don't have to make a choice here.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, that's another way to do it. In other words, subtraction by addition.

So Justice McClure, what do you think about that?

HON, ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I'm not

Patterson proposes.

And we already voted on that, and as I said, I don't want to make a habit of this, but enough people have raised the issue that I'm going to do it this time.

So everybody that wants to retain in some form Comment 4, which has list of some 18 factors, raise their hand.

HON. DAVID PEEPLES: As opposed to general?

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, as opposed to a more general, kind of generic.

MS. CORTELL: Chip, I'm sorry, but I'm not sure it's that far apart. I mean, I can't speak for Judge Patterson, but a more global grouping, let's say, of four would probably encompass some of these specifics. In other words, I don't see them — I'm not sure I see the big difference between the two proposals.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: It may not be, Nina. And all we're doing is, if a majority of this committee says yes, then we're going to note that in the report, and then we're going to get down to — and it may be that if Page 325 opposed to the broad concept of putting it in there, but I think it's in there. I mean, I think it's in the statute that you are to consider maturity, a well informed decision, and best interest of the child. I don't think that in a broad global statement you can quantify the factors that go into that. I think that's in there. I don't mind putting a general proviso in the rules. What I'm not in favor of doing is deleting these factors from the comment.

HON. PHIL HARDBERGER: And I can live with the factors as stated as the committee has recommended. But if there's enough feeling that we need the global, we can certainly put it in.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. I think we owe it to the Court to give a sense of whether a majority of this committee disagrees with Justice McClure, what she just said. So that's what we're voting on.

How many people think we should not have these 18 factors or some variation thereof, these 18 factors in Comment 4, raise your hand.

DUNCAN: There seems 7 to be a suggestion that that was a vote on one's view on the abortion issue. And I just 8 9 want to make it clear that my vote at least 10 was not at all related to what my views may or 11 may not be on that issue. 12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So noted. 13 HON, SARAH B. DUNCAN: Thank you. 14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, Richard. 15 MR. ORSINGER: It seems to me that 16 the Supreme Court promulgating this comment is 17 unprecedented and far beyond the lesgislative 18 mandate that we have. And I would propose 19 that the Supreme Court consider treating this 20 as a committee comment and not a Supreme Court 21 comment, because this is what should really be 22 in a court opinion, not part of the 23 legislative rules. If we want to have it in 24 there, let's have it in there, but let's not 25 say this has the imprimatur of the Texas seem to be talking about something else other than what's the guardian's job.

Richard suggested talking about what the guardian ad litem is going to do, and that would at least help me. What is that role? And then I would be able to decide a little better what factors ought to be considered.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Carl, I think, had his hand up.

MR. HAMILTON: I agree with Joe. I would like to do everything to prevent abortions that we can. But this list, it seems to me, and the duty of the guardian ad litem is to answer the question about whether or not there is consent. And if the minor can't give it, I guess the guardian gives the consent. But I don't see anything in the list that relates to any considerations for adoption or the rights of the baby. I think there needs to be something in there about that, if this is going to relate to the consent question. I think the list is totally incomplete.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That comment is noted. Bill.

PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Well, I guess I'm not sure what the guardian's role exactly is, the guardian ad litem's role exactly is here. Aren't we trying to decide under this statute whether you can bypass the parents. isn't that the idea, not whether the abortion is a good idea or isn't?

This list is about whether it's a good idea to have an abortion or not, in my view. And the suggestion was made earlier that some sort of list that relates to the findings that the court is supposed to make about the minor being well informed, whether there will be a problem if the parents are notified, physical violence problem or whatever, seems to be the pertinent question.

I go back again to, what does it have to do with anything, the applicant's means of financial support? Does that mean that it's not okay to have abortions if you're rich? It is okay? That if you're poor, that it's a good idea? I don't like these factors. They

Ī points out my concern on this vote, and my concern has become even greater. In my view, 2

3 the question before the court, trial or appellate, is whether one of the avenues for bypass has been met on the facts of the case 5

6 given the statute. Whether a child has

7 considered the financial consequences of her

8 decision one way or the other, or her desire.

whether there are medical aspects or indications to the decision, could go to maturity, could go to meeting one of the other bases for bypass.

And that's why I just don't understand this list to be a pro- or anti-abortion list. It is, to me, a list that's designed to help an ad litem, whether attorney or otherwise, talk to the applicant and try to help the court in making the decision required by the statute.

MR. PEMBERTON: Can I just throw something out? Perhaps it would be useful, in consideration of all these comments, and I think Justice Hardberger was suggesting something along these lines, to break this down into a generalized list of factors going

We cannot lose sight of the fact 4 is, one can make this non-litmus-testy, if 5 that it is just after 3:00 o'clock, number 5 there is such a word, and eliminate a lot of 6 one; and number two, this subcommittee has had 6 the duplication and take out some of the 7 the benefit of a tremendous amount of 7 irrelevant items, just a quick stab at it. 8 expertise that is extra-judicial, extra-8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Thanks, Nina, 9 illegal, that we don't have the benefit of. 9 After our afternoon break, which is going to 10 And that's why we set up the procedure the way 10 be for 10 minutes, we're going to take up the 11 we have for this, recognizing that, if we go always exciting appellate issues. 11 12 back to the drawing board, this committee is 12 (10-minute recess.) 13 never going to see this again. 13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. We're back 14 So what I think we should do is, as soon on the record. Everybody should have a folder 14 15 as I'm finished speaking, take our afternoon that has subcommittee issues and assignments. 15 break. But with respect to this, I think we 16 And my experience is that late in the day 16 17 should note to the Supreme Court that there is 17 sometimes we see people drift off for various 18 considerable concern within our committee reasons. So Justice Hecht wanted me to go 18 19 about Comment 4; and there's concern about the 19 over this right now while we have just about 20 appropriateness of some and perhaps all of the 20 everybody here. 21 factors that have been set forth here; and 21 We have, as I said at the outset, made 22 there have been some recommended changes in 22 assignments to the subcommittees. And the 23 language, which we have approved, and which we 23 subcommittees are organized by rule. And 24 will incorporate into the rule and leave it at there's nothing particularly magic about how 24 25 that, because this committee cannot rewrite they're organized, although some things are 25 Page 339 Page 341 1 this comment this afternoon. Otherwise, we're self-evident like the Evidence Subcommittee, 1 2 never going to do everything else. So that's 2 the Discovery Subcommittee, the Sanctions 3 where I think we ought to leave it. 3 Subcommittee, that type of thing. 4 And since Nina is such a dear friend of 4 Does anybody have any questions or 5 mine, she can say one more thing before we 5 comments? And for those of you who came in 6 take our afternoon break. 6 late, if you have a particular interest or 7 MS. CORTELL: Well, I won't be after 7 experience in a particular area of the rules 8 this comment. If I could, I have just a quick 8 and you want to be on that subcommittee, 9 sort of drafting thought. Let me just throw you're welcome to do that. Just come to me 9 10 it out and people can think about it. 10 and let me know what subcommittee that is that 11 It seems to me you can group a lot of 11 you're interested in. As I said earlier these into three or four items. One goes to 12 12 today, that does not mean that you necessarily 13 mental capacity. That would cover the 13 can get off the one that you're on. But we're 14 education piece, the employment piece, you 14 15 know, that sort of thing. Another category would be considering risks, and that will hold with the procedure, after the procedure. The third would be the circumstances that led to the pregnancy. That would pick up the abuse, incest. Fourth, advisability of further counseling, picking up all the several different ones here about counseling. And then fifth, the consideration of the medical

HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Issues to be addressed, is that exclusive or preclusive? Or is that just, "Here are these, and if you want to do more, you can"?

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That is issues that are pending before our committee as of today. Justice Hecht sent a letter out that had a whole big laundry list of things, and he

of what they're trying to do. I think maybe we're arguing about that less-than-one-percent of the cases where the court of appeals does not do what the statute and the rules require them to do that.

HON, SARAH B. DUNCAN: These rules don't require us to issue an order.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, but the statute does. The statute gives you two days to do something. And these rules, as I understand it, say that if the court itself does not provide the minor with a piece of paper that she can take to the doctor and say, "See, I win on this," and then the doctor says, "Great, okay, let's go," then in that instance, in that rare instance, which would never happen in the San Antonio Court of Appeals, but in that rare instance, then there because the only extant judgment is a judgment that contains findings. The only findings made by anybody authorized to make findings in reasons we have a judgment of a case on appeal, as opposed to just an order of inaction, is because you have a live, unsuperseded judgment that denies the application, which, under the statute, contains findings which are contrary to the right which is being sought.

THE REPORTER: Mr. Hatchell, could

There are many cases that hold that if your last judgment is set aside, it is a binding judgment. So basically what you end up with, under our procedure, is something that says, "We have failed to take an action, and we deem it's granted," but on the other hand, this judgment is still alive. And there are cases in Texas which will recognize the existence of two live judgments at the same time.

And this procedure which the legislators

The difficulty was 11 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: All right, I 12 implementing the scheme at the appellate level 12 guess I'm really talking about 2D and then 13 certainly, and I don't disagree with the also talking about 3D. I don't like language, 13 14 problems that both of you are expressing, and 14 even though the statute uses the language 15 perhaps it would be appropriate for this 15 "deemed to be granted," I mean, it either is 16 committee to reinforce those difficulties to 16 granted or it isn't granted. Let's have it be 17 the Supreme Court to try and resolve some of 17 granted. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: And the CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Richard. 4 State of Texas is going to have to pay for 5 MR. ORSINGER: My first comment is 5 it. The court reporters are paid by the State 6 that under Rule 3.2(b), the trial clerk has to 6 of Texas under the statute. 7 forward the reporter's record, but there's no 7 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Under 8 duty on the reporter to prepare the reporter's 8 the statute, the Department of Health is going 9 record. And so I can foresee that there's a 9 to be responsible for payment of the ad litems 10 conflict there where the district clerk is the 10 and the reporters. We've drafted forms to 11 one who has the duty to comply and no power to that effect. The Department of Health did not 11 12 comply. And should we not have a sentence in receive explicit appropriations in the budget 12 13 here that requires the court reporter to 13 process for that. They do have the ability 14 prepare it? 14 under their budget to juggle. I have gotten a 15 HON, ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: There 15 letter from the director of the department. 16 is. Let me find it for you. 16 They are trying to come up with some sort of 17 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: 2.4(d). 17 uniformity. 18 MR. ORSINGER: 2.4(d) just says that They had asked our subcommittee to draft 18 19 the court reporter has to make a record. It some sort of guideline on ascertaining fees 19 20 doesn't say it has to transcribe it. 20 for ad litems and for the guardians and for 21 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: It says the 21 the court reporters, which we declined to do. 22 recording must be transcribed. 22 but we put them in touch with the people that 23 MR. ORSINGER: Well, I'm reading 23 keep those records, OCA in particular. 24 something that says, "The hearing must be 24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Rhea. transcribed." What are you looking at? 25 25 HON, BILL RHEA: I think that's Page 391 Page 393 ł HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: "The hearing potentially a very large expense. I have no 1 2 must be transcribed." idea how many of these will be filed, but if 2 3 MR. ORSINGER: In my view that means 3 it's any significant number, and then we that the court reporter makes a record of 4 could -- I could envision getting into a long 4 5 what's said. That doesn't mean that you type 5 hearing on it and having a long record. 6 it. You only type it up in the event that 6 JUSTICE HECHT: The estimates are 7 there's going to be an appeal. 7 2,000 cases a year statewide. Our state 8 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: "Transcribe" agency people project that, and that the 8 9 means to type it up. 9 average hearing is 15 minutes. 10 MR. ORSINGER: So this means that 10 HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: Fifteen 11 every time there's a hearing, they have to 11 to 30, I think, is what they predicted. 12 type it up, even if it's granted? JUSTICE HECHT: So you would have 12 13 HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: Yes. 13 probably a 15- or 20-page record, that would 14 MR. ORSINGER: Why? 14 be the average. If you had 2,000 cases, it 15 HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: Because 15 might be $100 for the record, so you're 16 there is a provision that, to the extent looking at $20,000 -- $200,000. 16 there's sexual assault on the child or abuse, 17 17 HON. 10	HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: But I hear a	10	CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Do we want to
11	regular docket of child abuse cases where all	11	have a vote? Okay. How many people think
12	we're talking about are allegations of	12	that the number of cases that should be

18	CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Rhea,	18	doctors wanted this, and I've just heard that
19	HON. BILL RHEA: And didn't we hear	19	now. Originally, it was because there may be
20	somewhere that these records were destroyed	20	sexual abuse that we would need to refer. In
21	after 60 days? Is that right?	21	mulling that over, I couldn't see why to keep
22	HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: No.	22	it. But now there's an argument that we do
23	There is a retention period for a minor, two	23	need them in every instance because the
24	years past the age of majority. I forget		doctors, the providers, are saying that. And
25	precisely what the other language is.		so I want to

Page 398 Page 400 1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, that's what 1 MS. SWEENEY: The concern on 2 Judge Medina was saying. 2 liability, I think, is that the doctors may 3 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: No. I'm 3 have thought that they were protecting 4 saying that the court reporters -- what 4 themselves. But with all due respect, it goes 5 happens if you need it later on and you don't 5 other way, and you're building in malpractice 6 have that same court reporter? It's not - I 6 cases by creating all these records. 7 mean, this court reporter may not be able to 7 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: But the 8 transcribe somebody else's notes because they 8 minor has a right. I would rather -- if she all have their own shorthand. 9 has a basis for it, there ought to be a record 9 10 MR. YELENOSKY: Well, I understand 10 there. If she doesn't, there shouldn't be. 11 that. But unless I misunderstood, I thought 11 It cuts both ways. 12 the reason why we needed a transcription in 12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Rhea. 13 retention was because of potential liability, 13 HON. BILL RHEA: And to add in, I 14 which is a problem or a potential in every 14 think it's still the rule, at least it used to 15 case, and so that would persuade me to 15 be, but the court reporter standard, and I transcribe it in every instance, if in fact 16 16 don't see David still here, was that they, by 17 that's a good argument. But it was just 17 statute, could destroy their records after 18 thrown out as an afterthought. So I feel kind three years. So if we're talking seven years 18 19 of caught up without a chance to even discuss 19 down the line, those records may not only be 20 that to understand where that came from, and 20 untranscribable; they may not exist anymore. 21 if in fact that was the providers saying that 21 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Well, they 22 we need this protection or we're not going to 22 would be destroyed in three years, unless 23 do the procedure. somebody tells the court reporter not to do 23 24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There that under the case law, I believe. 24 25 was some concern expressed by the providers to 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Buddy Low and Page 399 Page 401 1 that effect, a record of the proceeding. then Judge Peeples and then Richard. 1 2 MR. Judge Medina. So I mean, it's not just a question - it 7 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: Okay. And 8 8 might be more than just the legal issues 9 so this child is 13. She's going to be --9 involved. And I know a lot of doctors, if what, two years after she's 18, she's now 20. 10 10 they're going to do something like that, they 11 That's seven years. You've got that record 11 want a record. Page 450 1 does not say that the oath has to be made by 2 the minor. It simply has to be made like in 3 any other case by a person with personal 4 knowledge and able to swear under oath. 5 The application form you have requires 6 that the minor sign it. It requires that the 7 minor be the one that makes the statements 8 under oath. The reason I think this might be -- and I did not draft this and I wouldn't claim it, but under 33.003(c), one of the things that you have to have in the application that is noticeably missing is the minor's name. And obviously, I'm not speaking for the Legislature on this, but this rule, as you all are proposing it, requires the minor's name to be stated, requires the minor to sign the application, requires the minor to do it under oath, and I don't see that in the statute.

HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: What we did in drafting these was to look to the other jurisdictions additionally that have implemented them. The doctors had some concern about there being a verification page which did contain the name, and that's where that is going to be listed. Under oath was something that we talked about to some extent.

It was, as I recall, Sam who developed it in the subcommittee, the editorial committee, and drafted it. So if you want to address that?

HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: Well, it was basically more out of concern of trying to marry people up, and if you're going to try to -- you know, the same individual here as there, and that's what came out of it.

REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: I understand. Well, there was some talk about you stamp the verification or something with the same number and this and that, but I was just -- my personal reading of this was that I could file this on behalf -- absent the rule that's being proposed, I could file this on behalf of a client, I could have a friend of theirs verify it under oath, and I could proceed under this statute. That's the way I read the statute, just like I could for any other writ of garnishment or anything else.

HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: I don't disagree with you.

REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: I think that's a substantive change from the statute.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, the only thing I would say is that if you look at 3(C), it says, "A statement that the minor wishes to have an abortion." It's very subjective. I suppose an attorney could sign under oath saying, "She told me that she wanted it."

REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: Well, a friend could do it. Anybody with personal knowledge. We do that all the time. Every time we have somebody sign an affidavit, they're saying what other people want, generally, or what other people did. That's a fair point. Linda.

MS. EADS: I think if you're going to require the minor to verify under oath, you're not taking into account a lot of different kinds of minors you're going to be dealing with. Some of them will be incompetent mentally. I think the statute is a better way of having this, which is the application is verified, rather than requiring the minor be the one who verifies it.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Do you accept accept that, Judge?

HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: No. REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: The other thing I'd like to point out, if you all decide to make this change, then I would sure urge that something be put on the application in pretty big letters informing the minor, "Your name will not be released to anybody" somewhere.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Let's do it one at a time. Let's have a vote on whether or not -- the suggestion that the minor should not be required to file the application under oath but just somebody with personal knowledge.

REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: I think there are two issues. One, does the applicant have to file that application? The application is signed, not by a lawyer, not by -- so if somebody comes in to see me, I'm not signing the application. Fine. And then the second point is the oath. Does the oath have to be made by the minor? I think there are two things that are being added to the

Page 454 Page 456 1 statute that aren't there. 1 heard is that it's been done this way because 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay, I 2 other jurisdictions did it that have similar 3 understand the oath part. But what's the 3 statutes. I can't --4 first part again? 4 HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: Well. 5 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: The first 5 there's another issue, too, that I thought I part, the application, the formal application, 6 6 made clear and perhaps I didn't. The 7 is to be signed by the minor under the rule. 7 application has to be under oath by statute. 8 Under the rule the minor signs the 8 The question is, who is going to do the oath? 9 application. 9 Is it going to be the lawyer on behalf of the 10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Right, Under minor, or must it be the minor? 10 11 oath. 11 We took the position at the subcommittee 12 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: Right. So I 12 level that in all likelihood these are going 13 think there's two issues. One, does the minor to be filed before the attorney is appointed. 13 14 have to be given the oath; and number two, 14 The number of instances in which she has 15 does the minor have to sign the application. 15 sought independent counsel before she files it 16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Let's split it 16 is going to be in our view less frequent. In 17 into two, though, so we're clear about what order to come up with forms, which we were 17 18 we're voting on. The first proposal is that required, the two forms we were required to 18 19 we should delete the requirement from the come up with, one of them is the application; 19 20 rules and the form that the minor must sign that if we had an application, that it ought 20 the application. Everybody in favor of that 21 21 to be providing for her verification. 22 raise their hand. The doctors expressed some concern about 22 23 HON. BILL RHEA: Chip, can I make a 23 having the verification by something other 24 comment first? I think we're missing perhaps 24 than the minor. 25 33.003(a), which to me is very specific. It 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Could the father Page 455 Page 457 1 says a pregnant minor may file an 1 file the application? application. In the Rules of Civil Procedure, 2 2 MS. EADS: What are you going to do 3 for the most part it's very clear that it's 3 about the retarded 14-year-old who has been 4 the attorney who can file on behalf in this or raped by the father? I mean, this rule 4 5 that type of action, but that's real 5 requires that that retarded 14-year-old sign 6 explicit. 6 the application. That makes no sense to me. 7 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: If we look Why is it mandatory that that's the person who 7 8 at the garnishment statute, the Civil 8 signs it, when the statute just says the 9 Procedure rule on garnishment, it says the 9 application has to be verified? I mean, that 10 plaintiff may file an application for writ of 10 puts an enormous burden on the system, and I garnishment. to be acting as a next friend. Then again,

Page 458 Page 460 1 you know, that's kind of prejudging wishes this. An attorney doesn't have 2 circumstances that aren't present. 2 personal knowledge of what the minor wants. 3 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: One thing If the attorney is told what the minor wants, 3 4 that was discussed, in this situation, I'm that is still, it seems to me, hearsay, not 5 informed that many of these girls don't come 5 personal knowledge. It can only be the person 6 from traditional families. They live with who says they want it. 6 7 grandparents and things like that. I envision 7 MS. I know 10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I can envision a 11 there will be other times where various 11 situation where the teenage father goes in 12 organizations will assist them. But with 12 there and files the application and swears to 13 regard to the other bypasses that were it because the girl has told him that's what 13 14 discussed, I can see a grandmother who has 14 she wants, and then they go before the judge 15 basically raised the child go in, either to a 15 and there's some potential for abuse there. lawyer or on their own. Not many young women 16 16 particularly if there's a snafu and there's no 17 are going to be able to do this by themselves 17 actual hearing but it's deemed granted by 18 without assistance from somebody. 18 operation of law, so that the young woman is 19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Lawrence, 19 never before the judge, so he never really 20 HON. TOM LAWRENCE: It seems like 20 gets to ask the woman himself. That strikes 21 we're trying to expand the statute 21 me as potential for abuse. So that's my 22 unnecessarily. If the judge is going to have 22 comment, Judge. 23 the applicant perform for the hearing, I don't 23 JUSTICE HECHT: Or the incestuous 24 see that having the applicant swear to the 24 father, like Linda raised. What if the 25 affidavit gives it any more weight or 25 father, who has abused the child, he makes the Page 459 Page 461 credibility. 1 1 application? 2 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Of course, that 3 Mr. Chairman, may I say something? 3 would be somewhat incongruous since it's 4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes. 4 parental notification. 5 HON, SAMUEL A. MEDINA: For what JUSTICE HECHT: Well, the stepfather 5 6 it's worth to the rest of committee, basically 6 or the boyfriend or uncle. 7 some judges from Harris County, myself and 7 MR. LOW: Any part of the affidavit 8 others, and a judge from Austin, basically 8 that's signed by somebody mentally that was taken from Section A, I believe. And 9 incompetent, I don't know that they want 10 it was not a matter of, oh, it's got to be 10 that. How can somebody incompetent sign an 11 this way. There was not a whole lot of 11 affidavit, no matter what it is? That's the discussion. I don't know if that makes any 12 first thing. 12 difference. It was more like, okay, we have 13 13 MR. YELENOSKY: But that's always an 14 to look at it. A pregnant minor. Okay. 14 issue, and there are all kinds of requirements 15 We're we go. But there was not debate over 15 that people sign an affidavit to something 16 this. So take that for whatever it's worth to 16 that they have to take into account that 17 you. You make decisions, 17 potentially someone is incompetent, and then a 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Brown. 18 guardian is appointed or some other HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: I do 19 19 accommodation is made as somebody requires it. think we're adding to the statute a little bit 20 20 HON. JAN PATTERSON: What is 21 by saying the application has to be sworn to 21 meaningful to me is the face-to-face, the 22 and signed completely by the minor. But I 22 hearing, the judge and the girl. The 23 don't think we're adding to it when we say 23 application gets them there. And so I think that subpart (3) needs to be sworn to by the 24 24 we ought to facilitate getting them to the minor. Only the minor can say if the minor 25 judge as soon as possible so that the judge

Page 462 Page 464 1 can make an informed decision. 1 All right. And all those who believe to 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Rhea. 2 the contrary, that the rule and form as 3 HON. This could be so easy for some family 5 5 By a vote of 13 to 14, the sense of this member, either the abuser or just somebody who 6 6 committee is that it should be dropped, that doesn't want the trouble, to push something on 7 7 the minor should not be required to sign it a girl who may not want it. We have to leave 8 8 under oath. Did you got that, Bob? 9 that option open to the minor as well. 9 MR. PEMBERTON: Got it. 10 MS. EADS: Well, there's abuse on 10 MR. ORSINGER: The very last rule in 11 both sides. And the statute says 11 here, about when the Supreme Court exercises 12 "application," it doesn't say "applicant 12 its rule making authority, I think is negated 13 verifies," so I mean, we can argue abuse on by our decision to make all of the opinions in 13 14 both sides of this question obviously. 14 private, because it says the Supreme Court 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah. This is a 15 should promulgate rules in cases where there's 16 very interesting issue at 5:15. Bill no appeal from the court of appeals to the 16 17 Dorsaneo. 17 Supreme Court, but that the court of appeals 18 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Frankly, the 18 interpreted this Family Code provision as 19 statute doesn't say -- I don't find it in the 19 otherwise. But in light of the fact that it's 20 statute anywhere, although I think it's a good 20 never going to be published or revealed to 21 idea, that the minor would appear at this anybody, the Supreme Court will never know 21 22 hearing, but I don't see that the statute says 22 about that category of cases, and shouldn't we 23 anything about that. I mean, we're delete that now? 23 24 embroidering on the statute quite a bit. 24 MR. PEMBERTON: There's a provision 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, let's stick 25 in Rule 3 for forwarding a court of appeals Page 463 Page 465 1 to this issue. Judge Dorsaneo raises a great opinion to the Supreme Court, even -- well, 1 2 point. Okay. Is it still the sense of the assuming that at the time we provided there 2 3 subcommittee that they don't wish to entertain 3 would be an opinion in every court of appeals this amendment? 4 case. It would always be forwarded, whether 5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yes. 5 the case went up or not, to the Supreme Court, 6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. So we're so they would take it into account in issuing 6 7 going to vote first on whether or not the 7 their guidelines. 8 application must be signed by the minor. And 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I think that's 9 so the issue will be if you are in favor of 9 the answer to that. Paula. deleting the requirement in the rule, in the 10 10 MS.
