

Rule 103 Who May Serve

- (a) Citation and other notices, including process, may be served anywhere by:
  - (1) any sheriff or constable or other person authorized by law; or
  - (2) by any person who is not a party to or interested in the outcome of suit and who is certified to serve process as directed by the Supreme Court: or
  - (3) by written order of the court.
- (b) Service by registered or certified mail and citation by publication shall, if requested, be made by the clerk of the court in which the case is pending.

The Supreme Court will, by miscellaneous order, approve training programs for private process servers, including a time limit for when to recertify and a criminal record check.

SCAC to draft possible outline for a training program.

Buddy asked me to type up the Rule 103 proposal as discussed last week. Here it is.

Angie, can you put it on the website? Thanks.
