Re: Referral of Rules Issues

Dear Chip:

The Supreme Court requests the Advisory Committee to study and make recommendations on the following matters that arise from legislation passed by the 88th Legislature. Some require immediate attention, while others are longer-range initiatives.

The Committee should be prepared to discuss the following projects at its June 16-17, 2023 meeting and conclude its work on them by its August 18-19, 2023, meeting:

Discovery in Family Law Cases. HB 2850 adds Chapter 301 to the Family Code to move discovery procedures in family law cases from the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure to statute. The Committee should consider whether the discovery rules should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statute and draft any recommended amendments.

Suspension of Money Judgment Pending Appeal. Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 52.006 and Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 24.2(a)(1) govern the amount of a supersedeas bond when the judgment is for money. HB 4381, by adding Civil Procedure and Remedy Code § 52.007, requires a court to allow a judgment debtor worth less than $10 million to post "alternative security with value sufficient to secure the judgment" if the judgment debtor shows that the amount required by CPRC § 52.006 and TRAP 24.2(a)(1) would "require the judgment debtor to substantially liquidate the judgment debtor's interests in real or personal property necessary to normal course of the judgement debtor's business." The Committee should consider whether Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 24.2 should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statute and draft any recommended amendments.

Conduct of Judicial Candidates. HB 367 adds Government Code § 33.02105 to authorize the State Commission on Judicial Conduct to accept complaints, conduct investigations, and take disciplinary action against judicial candidates. The Committee should consider whether the Code of Judicial Conduct and the Procedural Rules for the Removal or Retirement of Judges should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statute and draft any recommended amendments.

Judicial Disclosures and Education. HB 2384 imposes ballot application disclosure requirements on judicial candidates and education requirements on judges. Section 2 of the bill adds Government Code § 33.032 to make public any sanction the State Commission on Judicial Conduct issues against a judicial candidate for making false ballot application disclosures, along with related records. Section 3 adds Government Code §§ 39.003–.004 to provide for the suspension and removal of judges who do not comply with education requirements. The Committee should consider whether the Code of Judicial Conduct and the Procedural Rules for the Removal or Retirement of Judges should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statutes and draft any recommended amendments.

Court Confidentiality. Section 1 of SB 372 adds Government Code § 21.013 to make it a criminal offense for court staff to knowingly disclose judicial work product and to require court staff and judges to comply with Court rules governing judicial work product. Section 2 directs the Court to adopt any rules necessary to implement § 21.013. The Committee should draft any recommended rules.

SVP Magistrate Referrals. SB 1179 (Section 10) and SB 1180 (Section 1) add Civil Practice and Remedies Code Chapter 14A to govern actions brought by a sexually violent predator who has filed a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs. New § 14A.061 directs the Court to adopt rules that provides for referral of a Chapter 14A action to a magistrate for review and recommendation. The Committee should draft any recommended rules.

Permissive Appeals. On September 15, 2022, the Court asked the Committee to study permissive appeals, and the Committee discussed the issue at its February 17, 2023 meeting. The Court now asks that the Committee supplement its study and propose any recommended amendments in light of SB 1603. SB 1603 adds Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 51.014(g) and (h) to require a court of appeals that does not accept a permissive appeal to “state in its decision the specific reason for finding that the appeal is not warranted” and to expressly allow the Court to review de novo the decision not to accept a permissive appeal and direct the court of appeals to accept the appeal. The Committee should consider whether Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 28.3 should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statute and draft any recommended amendments.

The Committee should conclude its work on the following projects by its October 13, 2023, meeting:

Clerk’s Record. Section 17.001 of HB 3474 adds Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 51.018 to permit appealing parties to file an appendix in lieu of the clerk’s record and to prohibit a clerk from charging a fee for the appendix. The Committee should consider whether the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure governing the clerk’s record should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statute and draft any recommended amendments.

Business Court. HB 19, by adding Government Code Chapter 25A, creates a business court and gives it jurisdiction over certain business matters. HB 19 includes several rulemaking directives. First, new § 25A.016 directs the Court to adopt rules “for the issuance of written opinions by the business court.” Second, new § 25A.018 directs the Court to set fees for filings and actions in the business court. Finally, new § 25A.020 directs the Court to “adopt rules of civil procedure as the Court deems necessary,” including rules “for the timely and efficient removal and remand of cases to and from the business court” and “the assignment of cases to judges of the business court.” The Committee should draft recommended procedural and administrative rules.

Fifteenth Court of Appeals. SB 1045 creates a Fifteenth Court of Appeals. Section 1.05 adds Government Code § 22.220(d) to give the Fifteenth Court of Appeals exclusive intermediate appellate jurisdiction over certain civil matters, including certain matters brought by or against the State and matters involving the Office of Attorney General that challenge the constitutionality or validity of a state statute or rule. Section 1.08 directs the Court, by adding Government Code § 73.001(c), to adopt rules for (1) transferring an appeal incorrectly filed in the Fifteenth Court of Appeals to the appropriate court of appeals and (2) transferring appeals incorrectly filed in the other courts of appeals to Fifteenth Court of Appeals. The Committee should make recommendations and draft recommended procedural and administrative rules.

The Committee should conclude its work on the following project in fall 2024:

Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act. Section 1 of HB 3929 permits the Court to adopt by rule the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act, which is a model statute adopted by 48 states to establish a uniform process for obtaining depositions and discovery in concert with other participating states. Section 2 repeals a conflicting statute—Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 20.002—upon the Court’s adoption of rules. The Committee should consider whether the discovery rules should be changed and draft any recommended amendments.

The Committee should conclude its work on the following project as it is able:

Court Interpreter Cost. Both HB 3474 (Section 10.07) and SB 380 (Section 1) amend Government Code § 57.002(g) to clarify that a person who has filed a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs need not pay interpreter costs unless the statement is successfully challenged. The Committee should consider whether Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 183 should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statute and draft any recommended amendments.

SVP Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs. SB 1179 (Section 10) and SB 1180 (Section 1) add Civil Practice and Remedies Code Chapter 14A to govern actions brought by a sexually violent predator who has filed a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs. New § 14A.054 allows a court to order the sexually violent predator to pay court costs but allows payment by installment. The Committee should consider whether Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145 should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statute and draft any recommended amendments.

Notice by Qualified Delivery Methods. HB 785, SB 1373, SB 1457, and SB 2248 amend multiple sections of the Estates Code to allow service in guardianship and probate proceedings by certain qualified delivery methods, including private delivery services like UPS and FedEx. The Committee should consider whether the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure governing citation and service should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statutes and draft any recommended amendments.

Waiver of Citation in Probate Proceedings. Sections 14 and 18 of SB 1373 amend Estates Code §§ 202.056 and 258.002 to allow for waiver of citation on minors in heirship and probate proceedings. The Committee should consider whether the citation rules should be changed or a comment added to reference or restate the statutes and draft any recommended amendments.

As always, the Court is grateful for the Committee's counsel and your leadership.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Nathan L. Hecht", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Nathan L. Hecht
Chief Justice

25 Code, involving a dispute based on a claim within the court's 26 jurisdiction under Subsection (b), (c), or (d).

27 (f) Except as provided by Subsection (h), the business court

1 has supplemental jurisdiction over any other claim related to a
2 case or controversy within the court's jurisdiction that forms part
3 of the same case or controversy. A claim within the business
4 court's supplemental jurisdiction may proceed in the business court
5 only on the agreement of all parties to the claim and a judge of the 6 division of the court before which the action is pending. If the 7 parties involved in a claim within the business court's 8 supplemental jurisdiction do not agree on the claim proceeding in 9 the business court, the claim may proceed in a court of original 10 jurisdiction concurrently with any related claims proceeding in the 11 business court.

12 (g) Unless the claim falls within the business court's 13 supplemental jurisdiction, the business court does not have 14 jurisdiction of:

15 (1) a civil action:

17 or

18 (B) to foreclose on a lien on real or personal

5 which a consumer in this state is a party, arising out of a 6 violation of federal or state law; or

7 (5) a claim related to the duties and obligations
8 under an insurance policy.

13 and Remedies Code;

14 (2) a claim in which a party seeks recovery of monetary
15 damages for bodily injury or death; or

17 Sec. 25A.005. JUDICIAL AUTHORITY. A business court judge
18 has all powers, duties, immunities, and privileges of a district
19 judge.

20 Sec. 25A.006. INITIAL FILING; REMOVAL AND REMAND. (a) An 21 action within the jurisdiction of the business court may be filed in 22 the business court. The party filing the action must plead facts to 23 establish venue in a county in a division of the business court, and 24 the business court shall assign the action to that division. Venue
25 may be established as provided by law or, if a written contract
26 specifies a county as venue for the action, as provided by the 27 contract.

1        (b) If the business court does not have jurisdiction of the 2 action, the court shall, at the option of the party filing the 3 action:

4                (1) transfer the action to a district court or county
5 court at law in a county of proper venue; or

6                (2) dismiss the action without prejudice to the 7 party's rights.

8        (c) If, after an action is assigned to a division of the 9 business court, the court determines that the division's geographic 10 territory does not include a county of proper venue for the action, 11 the court shall:

12                (1) if an operating division of the court includes a 13 county of proper venue, transfer the action to that division; or

14                (2) if there is not an operating division of the court
15 that includes a county of proper venue, at the option of the party
16 filing the action, transfer the action to a district court or county
17 court at law in a county of proper venue.

18        (d) A party to an action filed in a district court or county
19 court at law that is within the jurisdiction of the business court
20 may remove the action to the business court. If the business court 21 does not have jurisdiction of the action, the business court shall 22 remand the action to the court in which the action was originally 23 filed.

24        (e) A party to an action filed in a district court or county 25 court at law in a county of proper venue that is not within an 26 operating division of the business court or the judge of the court
27 in which the action is filed may not remove or transfer the action

1 to the business court.

2 (f) A party may file an agreed notice of removal at any time
3 during the pendency of the action. If all parties to the action
4 have not agreed to remove the action, the notice of removal must be
5 filed:

6 (1) not later than the 30th day after the date the 7 party requesting removal of the action discovered, or reasonably
8 should have discovered, facts establishing the business court's 9 jurisdiction over the action; or

10 (2) if an application for temporary injunction is 11 pending on the date the party requesting removal of the action
12 discovered, or reasonably should have discovered, facts
13 establishing the business court's jurisdiction over the action, not 14 later than the 30th day after the date the application is granted, 15 denied, or denied as a matter of law.

16 (g) The notice of removal must be filed with the business
17 court and the court in which the action was originally filed. On 18 receipt of the notice, the clerk of the court in which the action 19 was originally filed shall immediately transfer the action to the 20 business court in accordance with rules adopted by the supreme 21 court, and the business court clerk shall assign the action to the 22 appropriate division of the business court.

23 (h) The filing of an action or a notice of removal in the 24 business court is subject to Section 10.001, Civil Practice and 25 Remedies Code.

5 SECTION 27. Chapter 841, Health and Safety Code, is amended
6 by adding Subchapter I to read as follows:

7 SUBCHAPTER I. ADMINISTRATION OF CERTAIN MEDICATION TO CERTAIN
8 SEXUALLY VIOLENT PREDATORS

9 Sec. 841.201. DEFINITIONS. In this subchapter:

10 (1) "Capacity" means a committed person's ability to:

11 (A) understand the nature and consequences of a 12 proposed treatment, including the benefits, risks, and 13 alternatives to the proposed treatment; and

14 (B) make a decision whether to undergo the 15 proposed treatment.

16 (2) "Medication-related emergency" means a situation
17 in which it is immediately necessary to administer medication to a 18 committed person to prevent:

19 (A) imminent probable death or substantial
20 bodily harm to the committed person because the committed person:

21 (i) overtly or continually is threatening
22 or attempting to commit suicide or serious bodily harm; or

23 (ii) is behaving in a manner that indicates 24 that the committed person is unable to satisfy the committed 25 person's need for nourishment, essential medical care, or 26 self-protection; or

27 (B) imminent physical or emotional harm to another because of threats, attempted acts, or acts the committed person overtly or continually makes or commits.

(3) "Psychoactive medication" has the meaning assigned by Section 574.101.

Sec. 841.202. ADMINISTRATION OF MEDICATION TO COMMITTED PERSON. A person may not administer a psychoactive medication to a committed person who refuses to take the medication voluntarily unless:

(1) the committed person is having a medication-related emergency; or

(2) the committed person is under an order issued under Section 841.205 authorizing the administration of medication regardless of the committed person's refusal.

Sec. 841.203. PHYSICIAN'S APPLICATION FOR ORDER TO AUTHORIZE PSYCHOACTIVE MEDICATION; DATE OF HEARING. (a) A physician who is treating a committed person may, on behalf of the state, file an application in a probate court or a court with probate jurisdiction for an order to authorize the administration of a psychoactive medication regardless of the committed person's refusal if:

(1) the physician believes that the committed person lacks the capacity to make a decision regarding the administration of the psychoactive medication;

(2) the physician determines that the medication is the proper course of treatment for the committed person;

(3) the committed person is receiving mental health services under Section 841.0835 or other law; and

1           (4) the committed person, verbally or by other
2 indication, refuses to take the medication voluntarily.

3           (b) An application filed under this section must state:

4           (1) that the physician believes that the committed
5 person lacks the capacity to make a decision regarding 6 administration of the psychoactive medication and the reasons for 7 that belief;

8           (2) each medication the physician wants the court to 9 compel the committed person to take;

10          (3) whether the committed person is receiving mental 11 health services under Section 841.0835 or other law;

12          (4) the physician's diagnosis of the committed person;
13 and

14          (5) the proposed method for administering the 15 medication and, if the method is not customary, an explanation
16 justifying the departure from the customary methods.

17          (c) An application filed under this section is separate from 18 an application for court-ordered mental health services.

19          (d) A hearing on the application must be held not later than 20 the 30th day after the date the application was filed. If the 21 committed person is transferred to a mental health facility in 22 another county, the court may transfer the application to the 23 county where the committed person has been transferred.

24          (e) Subject to the requirement in Subsection (d) that the 25 hearing be held not later than the 30th day after the date the 26 application was filed, the court may grant one continuance on a
27 party's motion and for good cause shown. The court may grant more

1 than one continuance only with the agreement of the parties.

2 Sec. 841.204. RIGHTS OF COMMITTED PERSON. A committed
3 person for whom an application under Section 841.203 is filed is 4 entitled to:

5 (1) representation by a court-appointed attorney who 6 is knowledgeable about issues to be adjudicated at the hearing;

7 (2) meet with that attorney as soon as is practicable
8 to prepare for the hearing and to discuss any of the committed 9 person's questions or concerns;

10 (3) receive, immediately after the time of the hearing
11 is set, a copy of the application and written notice of the time,
12 place, and date of the hearing;

13 (4) be told, at the time personal notice of the hearing
14 is given, of the committed person's right to a hearing and right to 15 the assistance of an attorney to prepare for the hearing and to 16 answer any questions or concerns;

17 (5) be present at the hearing;

18 (6) request from the court an independent expert; and

19 (7) be notified orally, at the conclusion of the 20 hearing, of the court's determinations of the committed person's 21 capacity and best interests.

22 Sec. 841.205. HEARING AND ORDER AUTHORIZING PSYCHOACTIVE
23 MEDICATION. (a) The court may issue an order authorizing the 24 administration of one or more classes of psychoactive medication to 25 a committed person who is receiving mental health services under 26 Section 841.0835 or other law.

27 (b) The court may issue an order under this section only if

1 the court finds by clear and convincing evidence after a hearing
2 that the committed person:

3 (1) lacks the capacity to make a decision regarding 4 the administration of the proposed medication and treatment with 5 the proposed medication is in the best interest of the committed 6 person; or

7 (2) as determined under Section 841.206, presents a
8 danger to the committed person or others in the civil commitment
9 center in which the committed person is being treated.

10 (c) In making the finding that treatment with the proposed 11 medication is in the best interest of the committed person, the 12 court shall consider:

13 (1) the committed person's expressed preferences
14 regarding treatment with psychoactive medication;

15 (2) the committed person's religious beliefs;

16 (3) the risks and benefits, from the perspective of 17 the committed person, of taking psychoactive medication;

18 (4) the consequences to the committed person if the 19 psychoactive medication is not administered;

20 (5) the prognosis for the committed person if the 21 committed person is treated with psychoactive medication;

22 (6) alternative, less intrusive treatments that are 23 likely to produce the same results as treatment with psychoactive 24 medication; and

25 (7) less intrusive treatments likely to secure the 26 committed person's agreement to take the psychoactive medication.

27 (d) A hearing under this subchapter shall be conducted on the record by the probate judge or judge with probate jurisdiction, except as provided by Subsection (e).

(e) A judge may refer a hearing to a magistrate or court-appointed associate judge who has training regarding psychoactive medications. The magistrate or associate judge may provide the notice, set hearing dates, and appoint attorneys as required by this subchapter. A record is not required if the hearing is held by a magistrate or court-appointed associate judge.

(f) A party is entitled to a hearing de novo by the judge if an appeal of the magistrate's or associate judge's report is filed with the court not later than the third day after the date the report is issued. The hearing de novo must be held not later than the 30th day after the date the application under Section 841.203 was filed.

(g) If a hearing or an appeal of a magistrate's or associate judge's report is to be held in a county court in which the judge is not a licensed attorney, the committed person or the committed person's attorney may request that the proceeding be transferred to a court with a judge who is licensed to practice law in this state. The county judge shall transfer the case after receiving the request, and the receiving court shall hear the case as if it had been originally filed in that court.

(h) As soon as practicable after the conclusion of the hearing, the committed person is entitled to have provided to the committed person and the committed person's attorney written notification of the court's determinations under this section. The notification must include a statement of the evidence on which the

1 court relied and the reasons for the court's determinations.

2 (i) An order issued under this section shall authorize the 3 administration to a committed person, regardless of the committed
4 person's refusal, of one or more classes of psychoactive
5 medications specified in the application and consistent with the 6 committed person's diagnosis. The order shall permit an increase
7 or decrease in a medication's dosage, continuation of medication
8 authorized but discontinued during the period the order is valid, 9 or the substitution of a medication within the same class.

10 (j) The classes of psychoactive medications in the order
11 must conform to classes determined by the Health and Human Services
12 Commission.

13 (k) An order issued under this section may be reauthorized
14 or modified on the petition of a party. The order remains in effect
15 pending action on a petition for reauthorization or modification.
16 For the purpose of this subsection, "modification" means a change
17 of a class of medication authorized in the order.

18 Sec. 841.206. FINDING THAT COMMITTED PERSON PRESENTS A 19 DANGER. In making a finding under Section 841.205(b)(2) that the 20 committed person presents a danger to the committed person or 21 others in the civil commitment center in which the committed person
22 is being treated, the court shall consider:

23 (1) an assessment of the committed person's present
24 mental condition;

25 (2) whether the committed person has inflicted,
26 attempted to inflict, or made a serious threat of inflicting
27 substantial physical or emotional harm to the committed person's

1 self or to another while in the center; and

2 (3) whether the committed person, in the 180-day
3 period preceding the date the committed person was placed in the 4 center, has inflicted, attempted to inflict, or made a serious
5 threat of inflicting substantial physical or emotional harm to 6 another.

7 Sec. 841.207. COSTS. (a) The court shall order the payment
8 of reasonable compensation to attorneys, physicians, language
9 interpreters, sign interpreters, and associate judges appointed 10 under this subchapter. The compensation paid shall be assessed as 11 court costs.

12 (b) The agency responsible for services under Section
13 841.0835(a) shall pay as provided by Subsection (a) the costs of a 14 hearing held under Section 841.205 regarding an order for the 15 administration of psychoactive medication to a committed person.

16 Sec. 841.208. APPEAL. (a) An appeal from an order issued 17 under Section 841.205, or from a renewal or modification of an 18 order, must be filed in the court of appeals for the county in which 19 the order is issued.

20 (b) Notice of appeal must be filed not later than the 10th
21 day after the date on which the order is issued.

22 (c) When an appeal is filed, the clerk shall immediately
23 send a certified transcript of the proceedings to the court of 24 appeals.

25 (d) An order issued under Section 841.205 is effective
26 pending an appeal of the order.

27 (e) The court of appeals and supreme court shall give an

1 appeal under this section preference over all other cases and shall
2 advance the appeal on the docket. The courts may suspend all rules
3 relating to the time for filing briefs and docketing cases.

4 Sec. 841.209. EXPIRATION OF ORDER. An order issued under 5 Section 841.205 expires on the first anniversary of the date the 6 order was issued.

7 SECTION 28. The changes in law made by this Act in amending
8 Sections 20.02, 21.07, 21.08, 22.01, and 38.11, Penal Code, apply
9 only to an offense committed on or after the effective date of this 10 Act. An offense committed before the effective date of this Act is 11 governed by the law in effect on the date the offense was committed, 12 and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose. For 13 purposes of this section, an offense was committed before the 14 effective date of this Act if any element of the offense occurred
15 before that date.

16 SECTION 29. Chapter 14A, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, 17 as added by this Act, applies only to an action filed on or after the 23 Code, as added by this Act, applies to a hearing ordering the 24 administration of psychoactive medication to a committed person

25 under that chapter that occurs on or after the effective date of 26 this Act, regardless of whether the applicable conduct of the 27 committed person being evaluated for that purpose occurred before,

1 on, or after the effective date of this Act.

2 SECTION 32. This Act takes effect September 1, 2023.

12 (2) the claim is frivolous or malicious; or

13 (3) the civilly committed individual filed an 14 affidavit or unsworn declaration required by this chapter that the 15 individual knew was false.

16 (b) In determining whether a claim is frivolous or

19 is slight;

20 (2) the claim has no arguable basis in law or in fact;

21 (3) it is clear that the civilly committed individual 22 cannot prove the facts in support of the claim; or

25 arises from the same operative facts.

26 (c) In determining whether Subsection (a) applies, the

1 service of process, and it may be held on motion of the court, a
2 party, or the court clerk.

3 (d) On the filing of a motion under Subsection (c), the 4 court shall suspend discovery relating to the claim pending the 5 hearing.

6 (e) A court that dismisses a claim brought by a civilly

8 contract with the office may notify the office of the dismissal and,
9 on the court's own motion or the motion of any party or the court
10 clerk, may advise the office that a mental health evaluation of the 11 individual may be appropriate.

12 Sec. 14A.052. AFFIDAVIT RELATING TO PREVIOUS FILINGS.

13 (a) A civilly committed individual who files an affidavit or 14 unsworn declaration of inability to pay costs shall file a separate

23 Subsection (b);

24 (3) identifying each action, other than an action

26 which the individual was not represented by an attorney, without 27 regard to whether the individual was civilly committed at the time

1 the action was brought;

2 (4) certifying that all grievance processes
3 applicable to the matter that is the basis of the claim, if any,
4 have been exhausted;

5 (5) certifying that no court has found the individual
6 to be a vexatious litigant under Chapter 11; and

7 (6) describing each action that was previously brought 8 by:

9 (A) stating the operative facts for which relief
10 was sought;

11 (B) listing the case name, the cause number, and 12 the court in which the action was brought;

13 (C) identifying each party named in the action;
14 and

15 (D) stating the result of the action, including 16 whether the action or a claim that was a basis for the action was 17 dismissed as frivolous or malicious under Section 13.001, 14.003,
18 or 14A.051 or otherwise.

19 (b) If the affidavit or unsworn declaration filed under this 20 section states that a previous action or claim was dismissed as 21 frivolous or malicious, the affidavit or unsworn declaration must 22 state the date of the final order affirming the dismissal.

23 (c) The affidavit or unsworn declaration must be

9 (b) A court shall dismiss a claim if the civilly committed 10 individual fails to file the claim before the 31st day after the 11 date the individual receives the written decision from the 12 grievance system.

13 (c) If a claim is filed before the grievance system
14 procedure is complete, the court shall stay the proceeding with 15 respect to the claim for a period not to exceed 180 days to permit
16 completion of the grievance system procedure.

17 Sec. 14A.054. COURT FEES, COURT COSTS, OTHER COSTS. (a) A
18 court may order a civilly committed individual who has filed a claim 19 to pay court fees, court costs, and other costs in accordance with
